

Minutes of the Marina Bay Neighborhood Council

The December 12, 2012 meeting of the Marina Bay Neighborhood Council was the 22nd Annual Holiday Pot Luck.

Tons of food, lots of drinks, and 65-75 people had fun, mingled and met new neighbors and reconnected with old neighbors. Special treats from our new neighbor, a restaurant called "Assembly", which is expected to open in January at the former Boiler House location. Many new, first time attendees came to the evening's festivities. Many people turned in their annual dues for calendar year 2013. No comments were received on the first dues increase in years to $15 ($25 for couples).

Stan Anderson, the MBNC president, spoke a little about MBNC and mentioned that January's meeting in 2013 will include the annual election of officers. Bob Carr presented the slate of officers for 2013 with all officers remaining in their current posts: Stan will run for President; Ruth Zablotsky, will run for Vice President; Pat Kiely will run for Treasurer; and Bob Carr will run for Secretary.

Beat Report: Officer David Longacre attended and reported that there were no incidents to report.

The party ended around 9:00 p.m.

Next Meeting is January 9, 2013.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Bob Carr, Secretary
Marina Bay Neighborhood Council
